

Help make a difference in how the Division of Services for People with Disabilities (DSPD) provides services!

DSPD is looking for self-advocates and people who use our services to be a part of different work groups and committees.

Ways you can help:

- Join our Disability Advisory Council to share your ideas on different projects
 - Meets for two hours, four times a year – limited space available
- Help us as we design and test out new technology for Person-Centered Planning that supports people to make their own life decisions
 - Meets for two hours, six times a year
- Help us as we design guidebooks to support people to understand expectations of the support team in the person-centered planning process
 - Meets monthly for two hours for three months

If you would like to learn more, or be a part of any of these projects, please send an email to: saskarajcevic@utah.gov or call 801-538-3930

- Reasonable accommodations will be available to help support your participation