

The Utah Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS) Research Project

About the Project

The purpose of this research project is to learn from people receiving services, family members, providers, advocacy organizations, and other community members about what's currently going well and not going well in the service system.

Fast Facts

Timeline: June 2023 – December 2025

2023

2024

2025

- Years 1 & 2: Engagement and Research
- Year 3: Projection of needs analysis and final LTSS recommendations report to DHHS

Populations: I/DD, Aging, Disability, and Medically Complex/Fragile

Activities:

- Engagement Steering Committee, Listening Sessions, Focus Groups, Interviews

- Research Reports on 11 topics about the service system

- Needs Analysis Estimating what the need for services will look like in the next 20 years

- Final Report Comprehensive research report with recommendations to DHHS

Project Priorities: Inclusion, Person-Centered Support, Service Quality, Effective Service System

How can I get involved?

Your voice is important! We want to hear from you if you are involved in the disability and aging service system!

Please go to DHHS's website to find ways to be involved. You can also learn more about this project there.

If you want to share ideas, give feedback, or participate in the project, you can do that here:

<https://forms.office.com/r/9FGKrbrced>
or by scanning the QR code below.

Human Services
Research Institute

Utah Department of Health & Human Services

Emma Eccles Jones College of Education & Human Services
Institute for Disability Research, Policy & Practice
UtahStateUniversity.

BURNS & ASSOCIATES

A Division of HMA