Person-centered planning

Person-centered planning competencies

The 5 core competency domains are:

1. Strengths-based, culturally informed, whole person-focused
2. Cultivating connections inside the system and out
3. Rights, choice, and control
4. Partnership, teamwork, communication, and facilitation
5. Documentation, implementation, and monitoring

Employment pathway tool

- New updated look
- Use to document informed choice activities
- Refer to as you complete it in USTEPS
- Let the person fill out the booklet themselves as part of pre-planning

Pathway A

Informed choice documentation

Options - People must have more than one option to choose from

Information - People must have information on each of the options

Experience - People must have experience with each of the options

Informed Choice

Example #1

Susie, 20 years old in post high

- Start with a list of interests
- Connect interests to places or experiences to explore
- Document the places and experiences, and the person's reaction to them
- Share the information

Example #2

Cesar, 40 years old, considers his day program as his job

- Refer to Appendix A when not sure what “work” is
- List meaningful activities to try
- Split the list with staff
- Document the activities and reactions to them
- Share the information

Tips to remember

- Document employment, interests, and community exploration.
- Be specific and note the person's reaction.
- Share information and responsibilities with the support team.
- Informed choice for employment is a yearly expectation.
